Pledge and participate!

Each year, law enforcement officers from communities all over Alaska join people from all walks of life in what has become one of the most successful fund-raising events ever — the Alaska Law Enforcement Torch Run and Pledge Drive for Special Olympics Alaska.

The fun run is a great way for families and neighbors to get out and stretch their legs, get some fresh air and support training and competition programs for more than one thousand Alaskan athletes with intellectual disabilities.

On May 17, 2008, 5K family fun runs will kick off in 17 communities — Anchorage, Barrow, Delta Junction, Dillingham, Fairbanks, Homer, Juneau, Kenai, Ketchikan, Klawock, Kodiak, Kotzebue, Mat-Su Valley (Palmer/Wasilla), Nome, Seward, Sitka and Valdez.

Every dollar counts.

Participants with a minimum donation of $25 will receive a T-Shirt. In addition to this donation, participants are encouraged to obtain pledges from co-workers, neighbors, family and others so that they can maximize their contribution to Special Olympics Alaska. Every dollar goes a long way!

Everyone is welcome.

Walkers, runners, joggers, strollers and rollerbladers welcome! Join in the fun and keep the flame burning for Special Olympics Alaska.

Pledging Support

Please consider collecting pledges prior to the Torch Run, and turn these funds in on the day of the race. Pledges account for a significant portion of funds raised by this drive. Every dollar counts — 100% of the proceeds go directly to support sports and competition programs for Alaskans with intellectual disabilities in your community.
